James Walker speaks at the PLI "Mergers & Acquisitions 2009: Trends and Developments" seminar

January 22, 2009
New York, NY

On January 22, 2009, Richards Kibbe & Orbe partner James Q. Walker presented ethics issues relating to M&A transactions, including clearing conflicts in M&A transactions, duties of a lawyer representing management in a management buy out to the company's shareholders, ethical issues associated with the representation of a special committee in M&A transactions, and ethical issues faced by counsel representing a potential acquirer in negotiations with the target's in house counsel. The program took place at the Practising Law Institute, 810 Seventh Avenue, New York, N.Y.
