MaryJeanette Dee speaks at the "Interlinking the U.S. and Canada through Overcoming and Managing Multi-Jurisdictional Obstacles" seminar

November 28, 2007
Toronto, Canada

As U.S. and Canadian authorities increasingly cooperate with each other, cross-border enforcement issues have become commensurately more important to litigators on both sides of the border. On November 28, 2007, in connection with The Canadian Institute's 7th Annual Advanced Forum on Securities Litigation - Winning Strategies to Litigate and Resolve Disputes in the Capital Markets Battleground, Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP partner, MaryJeanette Dee participated in a panel devoted to "Interlinking the U.S. and Canada through Overcoming and Managing Multi- Jurisdictional Obstacles" at St. Andrew's Club & Conference Centre, Toronto. Ms. Dee practices in the areas of Internal Investigations and Regulatory and White Collar Criminal Defense.
