MaryJeanette Dee presents "Internal Investigations: Balancing Competing Concerns & Objectives"

July 9, 2009
Webcast

On Thursday, July 9th, Partner MaryJeanette Dee webcasted a live presentation titled "Internal Investigations: Balancing Competing Concerns & Objectives" as part of BrightTALK's Securities Litigation Summit.

Ms. Dee discussed the latest developments regarding DOJ, SEC and FINRA cooperation guidelines, the recent emphasis on sharing "factual" (versus "privileged") information with the government and regulators, and issues relating to employee representation (fee advancement, Upjohn warnings and multiple representations). She offered strategies for meeting government and regulatory expectations while minimizing costs and litigation risk.
