MaryJeanette Dee participates as a Panelist at the PLI "Bet the Company Litigation 2009: Best Practices for Complex Cases" conference

November 10, 2009
New York, NY

On Tuesday, November 10, 2009, Partner MaryJeanette Dee participated in a panel at the Practising Law Institute (PLI) "Bet the Company Litigation 2009: Best Practices for Complex Cases" conference. The panel focused on "Internal Investigations," including the adequacy of Upjohn warnings, multiple representations of a company and its employees, and conducting internal investigations in the context of ongoing government investigations or civil litigation.

Practising Law Institute is a non-profit continuing legal education organization chartered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, founded in 1933. PLI provides the legal community and allied professionals with up-to-date, relevant information, and techniques which are critical to the development of a professional, competitive edge.
