"Distressed Investor Alert: Revisions to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 Will Discourage Active Involvement in U.S. Bankruptcy Cases" by Jon Kibbe, Michael Friedman and Keith Sambur referenced in The Wall Street Journal "Bankruptcy Beat"

The Wall Street Journal

January 5, 2010

"Distressed Investor Alert: Revisions to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 Will Discourage Active Involvement in U.S. Bankruptcy Cases," authored by Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP attorneys Jon Kibbe, Michael Friedman and Keith N. Sambur, was referenced in an article appearing in the "Bankruptcy Beat" section of The Wall Street Journal Online. This article, "Bankruptcy Disclosure Rules Rankle Investors," discusses proposed changes to Rule 2019 and highlights the memorandum published by Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP alerting distressed investors of the increased disclosures the revisions would require that are likely to discourage them from participating in future bankruptcy cases by purchasing a company's debt.
