The Legal 500 recognizes RK&O as "one of the top firms in the country" for white-collar and regulatory work

The Legal 500 United States

June 8, 2010

Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP has been recognized as "one of the top firms in the country" for white-collar and regulatory work in The Legal 500 United States - 2010 Edition. RK&O's litigation practice is praised as being well integrated with the firm's transactional practice and those surveyed reported that the firm has built up a considerable reputation since its inception twenty years ago. The firm's expertise within the areas of compliance and SEC enforcement is also noted. One client surveyed by The Legal 500 observed that "the group knows its subject matter area extraordinarily well, is responsive, smart, practical and a pleasure to deal with." In addition, RK&O partners were described as:

- "Experienced and sagacious"
- Possessing "expertise that has been noted by the SEC"
- Having a "deep knowledge of the subject matter, sound judgment, great instincts and [being] very client service oriented"
- Recommended for a "focus on compliance and SEC enforcement"

Lawyers recognized in the 2010 edition of The Legal 500 include Lee S. Richards, Michael D. Mann and Shari A. Brandt. Published for more than twenty years, The Legal 500 series of guides reviews the strengths and strategies of law firms in over one hundred countries, providing the most comprehensive worldwide coverage currently available on legal services providers.
