Chambers USA recognizes RK&O and highlights firm's expertise in Commercial and White-Collar Litigation and Securities Regulation

June 14, 2010

Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP has been recognized in the 2010 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

RK&O was named a "highly regarded" firm in Litigation: General Commercial category, and also ranked within the Litigation: Specialist Firms in White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations grouping. Partner Lee S. Richards was recognized as "a savvy litigator who quickly understands the landscape of complex cases." Partner Michael D. Mann, nationally ranked as a "Notable Practitioner" in the area of Securities Regulation: Enforcement, was described as having "an excellent understanding of cross-border issues" with one client commenting that "I could call him about any jurisdiction and he would know the answer."

When surveyed by Chambers about the litigation group at Richards Kibbe & Orbe, clients stated "The lawyers do an incredibly good job." Chambers went on to state that the firm "is recognized for its skillful handling of civil, regulatory and white-collar criminal matters" and is appreciated for its "efficient staffing of cases and attentive service." The guide also emphasized several of the firm's areas of particular strength, including class actions, securities and financial services litigation, criminal defense, corporate governance, executive employment issues, creditors' rights and capital markets litigation.

Chambers publishes the world's leading guide to the legal profession and has a long standing reputation for in-depth, objective research.
