

ATTORNEYS

Kenneth E. Werner

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

"Tax Characterization of Series Limited Liability Companies" by Kenneth Werner

August 6, 2008

The Internal Revenue Service has issued a Private Letter Ruling in which the Service determined that each series in a multiple series limited liability company should be considered a separate entity for United States income tax purposes. This has implications both from a substantive tax point of view and for reporting purposes.

Download memorandum